Walk and Pray in Honor of National Day of Prayer

Walk & Pray at Hillcrest Park (sun up to sun down)
From sun up to sun down on May 1, National Day of Prayer participants are invited to walk a 2-mile loop at Hillcrest Park. Eight stops will be marked along the trail to guide walkers in prayer over eight “centers of influence” which include government, military, media, business, education, church, family and health.

Park & Pray outside the Curry County Courthouse (12-1 p.m.)
For the thirteenth year in a row, Dr. Sistar Yancy of Christian Believers is organizing a National Day of Prayer program for Curry County. This year’s program will feature leaders in government, military, church, media and more to pray over nine “centers of influence.” Additionally, B.J. Brooks of Central Baptist Church will offer the opening prayer, and Able Barron of Now Glory Church will recite the Lord’s prayer in English and Spanish. Clovis Mayor Mike Morris will also offer an official proclamation and praise and worship music will be shared.
